Dear Parishioners,

I hope you had a blessed and enjoyable Easter Sunday!

There are so many individuals to thank for helping us celebrate the Easter Triduum last week. I thank all of you who cleaned and decorated the church, those of you who laid the mulch around all the flower beds and throughout the Way of the Cross garden, those who served as lectors, Eucharist ministers, altar servers, greeters and ushers, musicians, cantors and members of the choir. Together you got us ready for the most significant and holiest days of our year! I was happy to see so many people here, not just on Easter Sunday, but also for the Services on Holy Thursday, Good Friday & Holy Saturday. They are Holy Days in and of themselves, but by way of all the preparations so many of you assisted us in doing, it truly provided, for all those who came to church, an environment to prayerfully celebrate and encounter the Risen Savior and His community of faith of Annunciation! May we continue to celebrate and look to encounter our Savior throughout these 50 days of Easter.

Please be sure to notice the announcement in this bulletin about Formed. It's a website that offers incredible materials about our Catholic faith for people and families of all ages, shapes and sizes. I would really encourage you to take a serious look at it. For so many of us, our Catholic education stops at the grade school or high school levels and we are left wondering about many, many things in regards to our Catholic faith. This resource has an abundant amount of material from family movies to e-books, from video series covering specific topics to podcasts from some of the best and most reliable Catholic authors of today. What is being offered is a one-week, free trial and then one can decide if they would like to become a member for $9.99 a month. Personally, I think it is a really worth-while to consider, especially when I think of other media things like Netflix, Hulu which come at a similar expense. And....these movies, podcasts etc. are really good and interesting! You can find out for yourself, if you want to give it a free try and see. And, if by chance you're wondering, that by the way I am selling this, am I getting some kind of commission for every person who signs up, the answer is, "No!" Ha! I just know it's a really good and reliable resource that would be a benefit to any and all of us when it comes to learning about the most important thing of our lives, our Faith, and getting to know better the most important person you and I will ever be in a relationship with, Jesus.

Looking ahead this week, please keep our second graders in your prayers, as they will receive their First Holy Communion this Saturday. You should see a few First Communion dresses and dress shirts & ties next Sunday as those same children will dress up one more time to receive their second Holy Communion!!!

Have a great Easter week!

Father Mike

Athletics

As a volunteer on The Annunciation Athletic Association I coordinate the uniforms used in all sports. I also coordinate the basketball officials used in our gym to referee and work the score table at basketball games. I attend monthly meetings of The AAA and help support our various functions throughout the year.

Volunteering on The AAA has allowed me to work with the children of the parish as they learn the values of working together on a team and sportsmanship. It has allowed me to meet many youths and their parents whose only contact with Annunciation is through The AAA. Through The AAA I have been able to work with our parish's youth not only through eighth grade but in many cases through high school and into college. — Stephen Zarky
