Dear Parishioners,

I hope you had a good week.

A couple of things to check with your calendars –

- This Tuesday, August 15th, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary which is a Holy Day of Obligation for us. We will have Mass at 6:30, 8:00 AM & 7:00 PM.
- Opportunities to have your picture taken for our new Parish Directory are on Sunday, August 27
Monday, August 28
Tuesday, August 29

For those without access to computers you will have an opportunity to sign-up the old fashion way, by pen and paper, in the vestibule after our weekend Masses.

I am hoping as many of us as possible will be able to take the time to have their picture taken for our new Directory. I think most of us appreciate being able to put a name with a familiar face. The more of us who participate in this, the better it will serve all of us in growing together as a parish family.

Our kids head back to school this week.
Let's keep each other in prayer.

Father Mike

FATIMA PILGRIMAGE AT THE BASILICA OF ST. LOUIS, KING OF FRANCE (OLD CATHEDRAL)

Everyone in the St. Louis area is blessed to be able to honor Our Lady of Fatima in this 100-year anniversary of Mary's apparitions to the three children in Portugal. Pope Francis has given us the opportunity to receive a plenary indulgence during the months of the apparitions, May through October, if we pray before a venerated statue of Our Lady of Fatima and meet the usual conditions for the indulgence (see WWW.STLOUISREVIEW.COM July 17-23 edition, p. 6). After Cardinal John J. Carberry's pilgrimage to Fatima in 1970, he had a replica statue of Our Lady of Fatima placed in the Old Cathedral to inspire all of us in St. Louis to pray the rosary and work for the cause of peace in our world.

ue of Our Lady of Fatima placed in the Old Cathedral to inspire all of us in St. Louis to pray the rosary and work for the cause of peace in our world.

All women of the parish are invited to join WOA in a visit to the Old Cathedral on Monday, August 28. We will carpool from Annunciation at 10:30 a.m. to the Basilica for Rosary and Fatima prayers. Then we will go to lunch somewhere on The Hill, location for lunch still to be determined. If you would like to join this group, please R.S.V.P. before August 20 to Martha Disbennett at 314-941-0073 or disbennett@sbcglobal.net; or to Cathy LaBarge at 314-968-0757 or sflabarge@att.net.

If this plan doesn't work for you, please consider forming a group of your own, or going solo, to take advantage of these special graces from Our Lady of Fatima and Holy Mother Church.

August 2017

Annunciation Catholic Church
Fr. Mike Esswein, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Rose of Lima

Born in colonial Peru, Rose worked constantly to help her poverty-stricken family. From early on, she wanted to become a nun and practiced heavy penances. When her parents tried to make her marry, she marred her face with pepper and cut her hair to deter suitors. She became a lay Dominican, despite opposition. Concerned about the living conditions of Native Americans and slaves, she cared for homeless children, the elderly, and the sick in her home.

Be meek, not weak.

Meekness can be mistaken for weakness, but nothing could be further from the truth. Being "meek of heart" means being in control of your emotions rather than letting them control you. Today, pray for the courage to be meek of heart.

"If you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will forgive you. But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions" (Matthew 6:14).

Love can make us saints

It is very Catholic to admire the saints and imagine that they had characteristics of holiness that we don't. Yet many people who became saints didn't perform great deeds but had great love of God and neighbor. If they can do it, we can, too.

St. Augustine was a playboy. He was into partying, paganism, and an immoral lifestyle. Through the prayers of his mother and the guidance of St. Ambrose, Augustine came to adore the God he discovered in Scripture. His love for God made him a new man.

St. Mary of Egypt lived a life of extreme sin. Openly a prostitute, it is reported that she traveled to the Holy Land to ply her illicit trade to pilgrims. Instead, she had a spiritual experience while trying to enter a church and devoted the rest of her life to prayer and penance. She had a special love for Our Blessed Mother.

St. Ignatius of Loyola dreamed of courtly love and knightly deeds. Injured during a battle with the French, he was forced to convalesce to heal his shattered leg. While recuperating, he read the only books available - biographies of Jesus and the saints. Captivated by their holiness, Ignatius became attracted to a life of holy love. He later founded the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), a religious order that thrives today.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

What is transubstantiation?

During Mass, although the appearance doesn't change, the substance of the bread offered by the priest is changed into the substance of the Body of Christ. The same is true of the wine - its substance is changed into Christ's Blood.

Catholics believe that the words Christ said at the Last Supper, "This is my Body, this is my blood," meant that really and physically the bread and wine became his Body and Blood. He decreed that it be so.

Live a Catholic life

Our history is rich with Catholic men and women like us who have carried their faith into the world and made a difference. When we live a Catholic life, we help shape a better society and a more peaceful world.

At home. Our Gospel values guide us to value our families and friends as gifts of God's love. This translates into spending time together, working to strengthen and build up our loved ones, and being for them instruments of love.

At work. As people of faith, we can be pressured to choose That is the true Catholic way.

between competing values in the workplace. Making Catholic choices means not just avoiding evil but consciously choosing good. It means having the courage to honor our Catholic consciences always.

In the world. "Everyone to whom much is given, of him will much be required" (Luke 12:48). Catholics – especially in the United States – are called to care for the poor, protect the vulnerable, welcome the stranger and treat all people with dignity.

from Scripture

Matthew 16:13-20, The Rock for ages

The events in this passage lay the foundations for the Catholic Church. In it, Jesus asked his disciples who people said he was. Then he asked them, "Who do you say that I am?" It was a question about Jesus' identity, not his teaching or his popularity. At its heart, Catholicism centers around who Jesus is.

Simon Peter answered for the group and identified Jesus as the Son of God, the Messiah. Jesus pointed out that it was only by divine inspiration that Peter could know this. ("Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father" Matthew 16:17.)

Jesus changed Simon's name to "Peter," meaning "rock." By this change, Jesus signaled he was building his Church on a rock-solid foundation – on the confession of Peter about Jesus' divinity. This truth has been handed down through the ages, from the Apostles to the bishops to us. The Holy Spirit would lead Peter – and his successors, the popes – to speak and act in truth as the head of the Church.

Feasts & Celebrations

August 3 – St. Peter Julian Eymard (1868). Born in France, Peter was ordained a Marist in 1834 and was especially effective at preaching at Eucharistic devotions. He founded the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament and the Servants of the Blessed Sacrament to increase devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

August 6 – Transfiguration of the Lord. Tradition says that Mt. Tabor was the site of the Transfiguration during which Christ appeared radiant in the company of Moses and Elijah, and a voice was heard to say, "This is my beloved son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (Matthew 17:5).

August 15 – Solemnity of the Assumption. Declared a dogma of faith in 1950 by Pope Pius XII, this Holy Day of Obligation celebrates Mary being taken up into Heaven body and soul at the end of her life. "A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars" (Revelation 12:1). Mass attendance on this day is required.

Q & A How can Sacred Scripture be "truth" if not everything is correct?

The Bible is intended to convey truths about God. More than a book, it is a library of documents written by different authors in different times and places. These works have been compiled by the Church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, according to specific criteria. Like any library, the Bible contains a variety of literary genres: poetry, history, biography, etc. Knowing this can determine how we read it. For example, a poem may not be meant to be as factually accurate as a biography.

Finally, there are various ways in which to interpret Scripture, and each highlights different aspects of the truth. The literal sense deals with what the author wrote. The allegorical sense highlights the symbolism of the people and events in the story. The moral sense tells us what we ought to do regarding God and our neighbor. The "future" sense concerns what will happen at the end of time. These different senses give us a fuller understanding of God and his plan for us.

BIBLE STUDY - THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW

This summer we began hearing the Gospel of Matthew in church. In September we will take up "Matthew, The King and His Kingdom" from Ascension Press for our class. Jeff Cavins is the lecturer! It is the next study in The Great Adventure trilogy, following "The Bible Timeline" which we studied in 2015/16 and preceding "Acts, the Spread of the Kingdom" which I hope to use after "Matthew". These three studies give a wonderful foundation for any additional Bible Studies.

Classes will be on Mondays from 12:40 to 2:30 in the Fr. Klocker house, beginning on September 11th. The "Matthew" course runs for 24 weeks, so it will take us until after Easter of 2018, with breaks for Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Easter. The workbooks cost $30.00. There IS homework, but THIS IS A NO PRESSURE CLASS!!! If you want to join us or have questions, please call or e-mail Cathy LaBarge at 968-0757 or sflabarge@att.net before Monday, August 28th.

THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION, IS TUESDAY, AUGUST 15

MASSES: 6:30 a.m., 8 a.m., & 7 p.m.

Adoration on this day will start at after the 8 a.m. Mass and end at 6:30 p.m. The evening Divine Mercy Chaplet will be prayed at 6 p.m. this day.

There are two words that play a gigantic role in RCIA, those words are PROCESS and CONVERSION. RCIA is a wonderful process that unfolds as a faith journey. This faith journey challenges all involved in RCIA to accept the loving invitation of God, through His Son Jesus, to enter more deeply into a personal relationship with Him. When we take the risk of accepting God's invitation into a personal relationship with Him, we experience His Love as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This experience changes our hearts, minds and souls, moving us away from sin, and embracing the daily graces showered upon us by the Loving God. This change of heart, mind and soul is called CONVERSION. It is not a onetime event or experience, it is an ongoing call to be Christ like. Being Christ like is extended in my actions to all of God's creation, especially towards my fellow human beings.

Anyone interested in RCIA can contact Fr. Mike at 314-962-5955 or RCIA director Patrick Stack at 314-565-9143.
