LENT 2018

Annunciation Catholic Church
Fr. Mike Esswein, Pastor

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer" (Catechism of the Catholic Church).
18 Read today's Gospel before you go to church (Mark 1:12-15). Write down two things you learned and keep it with you throughout the day.	19 Grow in your faith by believing that God is there for you. Entrust your worries to God and know he will take care of it.	20 Call Catholic Relief Services (877-HELP-CRS or www.catholicrelief.org) to see how you can help.	21 Pray the Chapter of Divine Mercy, given to the world through St. Faustina to help repair the hurt caused by sin. Find it at www.usccb.org .	22 Pray for God to bless someone you don't like, or who you know doesn't like you.	23 Support your parish's Lent collections, whether it is the Bishop's Lenten campaign, Operation Rice Bowl or a mission collection.	24 Adopt a priest or member of a religious order in your diocese and pray for them every day of Lent.
25 Every Sunday in Lent is a "Little Easter." Spread joy by smiling at everyone you meet, regardless of how you feel.	26 Lent is a stressful time of year for priests. Offer to perform some act of service for your parish. Ask at the rectory for suggestions.	27 Read the seven penitential psalms in the Old Testament book of Psalms that express remorse for sins: 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, and 143.	28 Just for today, don't listen to the radio while you drive. Pray instead or listen to sacred music.	1 March When older people become less active, they can also become forgotten. Visit a senior you know, take one to lunch, and just listen.	2 Today, replace each snack with a prayer, or, if you do snack, say an extra prayer of thanksgiving that you have enough to eat.	3 Attend a Reconciliation Service or go to Confession on your own. Make a sincere confession and experience God's forgiveness.
4 Take one idea from today's Gospel reading or homily to put into practice this coming week.	5 Pick a virtue (prudence, justice, temperance, fortitude, faith, hope, or charity) and practice it for the rest of the week.	6 Ask God for a new grace today that will bring you closer to him.	7 Make a fresh start on your Lenten journey today. Renew your Lenten observances.	8 Pick one Corporal Work of Mercy to do: give food/drink to the hungry/thirsty, shelter homeless, clothe the naked, visit the sick or imprisoned, bury the dead.	9 Attend a Stations of the Cross service if your parish offers one. If not, find them here: www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/devotions/stations-of-the-cross/ .	10 Show Jesus you are willing to carry your cross by tackling something difficult you've been putting off.
11 Lenten Sunday Make Sunday special. Invite friends and neighbors over for a potluck brunch after Mass.	12 Make a good examination of conscience, with the Ten Commandments as a guide. You can find them in Exodus, Chapter 20.	13 Gather up the loose change around the house and put it in a jar. Donate the money to a local charity.	14 Resolve to go the entire day without judging or criticizing anyone.	15 Today, do one act of kindness for someone without expecting thanks in return.	16 Consider making today a day of fasting. When you feel hungry, remind yourself of those for whom hunger isn't a choice.	17 St. Patrick's Day St. Patrick evangelized Ireland. In his honor, explore ways to support your parish religious education program or youth group.
18 Choose someone who has passed away or needs extra help as your Mass intention today.	19 Solemnity of St. Joseph St. Joseph served God faithfully. What God said, he did. Resolve today to fulfill your responsibilities without complaining.	20 Psalm 136 is a song about God's mercy. Read through it and think of all the ways God has shown you mercy this Lent.	21 Deny yourself something you would like to buy. Then, give the money you saved to the poor.	22 Spend time before the Eucharist in prayer and adoration. Or find time when the church is open to be with Jesus.	23 Today, drink only water. Pray for those who can't afford the luxury of having iced coffee, soda, etc.	24 Start spring cleaning for Easter: Vacuum, dust, and straighten the rooms of the house you use the most to prepare for Jesus' Resurrection.
25 Palm Sunday Today's Gospel narrates the events of Holy Week. Place yourself in the scene and "walk through" Holy Week with our Lord.	26 Tonight and every night this week, pray for the catechumens coming into the Church at the Easter Vigil.	27 Clean your closet of clothes you no longer need. Donate gently used items that you no longer wear to charity.	28 Forgive someone who hurt you; ask forgiveness of those whom you hurt.	29 Holy Thursday The Church celebrates the Last Supper, when Jesus instituted the Eucharist and the priesthood. Celebrate by going to church tonight.	30 Good Friday Today is a day of fasting and abstinence. Read and meditate on John's account of Jesus' passion and death (John 18-19).	31 Holy Saturday Jesus' sacrifice gives us hope. Today, make a list of everything for which you have hope in this life and the next.

Dear Friends,

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday! Each year I find it hard to imagine that the Season of Lent is already upon us. It seems to sneak up on us so soon after celebrating Christmas. Nonetheless, Lent will arrive on Valentine's Day this year and Easter will be on April Fool's Day. How's that for getting you excited for this Season of prayer, fasting and alms giving?? If you are able to join us at one of our three Masses on Wednesday, that would be a great way for you to begin the Season of Lent. In the meantime, be sure to think about what you may want to do this Lent in the area of those three traditional practices. Once again we will have the Little Black Books available for your use, as well as Stations of the Cross on Wednesdays, and additional opportunities for you to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You may want to take advantage of one of the daily email series that exists, such as Bishop Robert Barron's or Matthew Kelly's, as well as others, which you could discover with a little searching. These days there exists many different, possible resources that we can find on-line that would be free of charge and would be of real value to us in making our Lent a real Season of grace. So I encourage everyone to begin searching and looking for a resource that will benefit you because this Wednesday we will once again be entering the desert for 40 days!

Peace be yours in the new week ahead-

Father Mike

One Minute Meditations

St. Scholastica

St. Scholastica was the sister of St. Benedict, the founder of the Benedictines. She was born in Italy around 480. She entered religious life and founded an order of Benedictine nuns. Every year, Benedict and Scholastica would meet about spiritual matters. After one of his visits, knowing she would die soon, she begged St. Benedict to stay longer. When he refused, she prayed to God and there was a terrible thunderstorm, forcing Benedict to stay. She died three days later.

Desire for change

When we decide that change in our lives is necessary, we can be impatient for results. Attitudes, outlook, and habits develop over time and will take time to modify. Sometimes our best achievement may be our determination to persevere for change, despite slow progress. Sincere, consistent effort is all that God requires.

"At the evening of life we shall be judged on our love." (St. John of the Cross, Dichos)

Goals for the Lenten journey

Lent is our gift from the Church to help us move from one state to another, through conversion to peace and joy at Easter. Consider these goals as you travel your Lenten journey.

Know that you are a sinner. The holiest people are most conscious of their sinfulness. The better we know God and his perfection, the more clearly we see our own faults and sins. The good news? Identifying our sinfulness leads to healing and cleansing.

Listen attentively. Hearing the sound of God's voice during prayer is rare. More often, God inspires us through Scripture, spiritual reading, homilies, prayer meditation. Throughout Lent, use these opportunities to ask God questions and listen for the answers.

Grow in authenticity. God created us to become the best possible version of ourselves. Living authentically means saying "yes" to what helps us become that best self and "no" to what doesn't. Starting with Lent, work to acquire virtues – saying, "yes" – and exercise self-control to eliminate bad ones – saying, "no."

Live generously. It is easy to notice what we don't have but Lent invites us to live in gratitude for what we do have. Gratitude then gives rise to generosity – sharing God's love and gifts with others. Generous people are encouraging, positive, and appreciative. During Lent, notice and appreciate God's gifts and share them with others.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics believe in Purgatory?

Throughout Scripture, there are references to the prayers for the dead. For example, Judas Maccabeus prayed that fallen soldiers he commanded would be forgiven their sin (2 Maccabees 12:46). Jesus discussed the forgiveness of sins "in this age or the age to come" (Matthew 12:32).

All who die in God's friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are assured of Heaven.

Purification after death may be required to achieve the necessary holiness to reach Heaven. The Church calls this state of purification, Purgatory.

How do I know God loves me?

God's love isn't earned and can't be lost. Such an amazing gift almost sounds too good to be true. So, how do we know God's love is real?

He sent his Son to us. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

His closest friends told us so. St. Paul said, "For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39).

He watches over us. "Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'... your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well (Matthew 6:31-33).

from Scripture

Mark 9:2-10, The Transfiguration.

In Jesus' time, Israel was occupied by the Romans. By that point, the Israelites had a long history of being invaded and conquered by other nations. The Jews dreamed of the day when the Messiah would throw off their enemies and make Israel a strong nation.

God established Moses as liberator and lawgiver, and sent them Elijah, the first of the great prophets who foretold Christ's coming. So, when Jesus was transfigured in glory with Moses and Elijah, the Apostles realized that God was revealing Jesus as the Messiah.

Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus about his death and Resurrection. Jesus had warned his disciples that he would suffer and die (Mark 8:31). While everyone was expecting the Messiah to overthrow the Romans and make himself king, Jesus revealed that the Messiah would save his people by his own death and Resurrection.

The Transfiguration strengthened the faith of the Apostles and prepared them for the Passion. The Transfiguration is a reminder that, however difficult this life may be, it is nothing compared to the glory that awaits us in Heaven.

Q & A What are the Corporal Works of Mercy?

In Jesus' parable of the judgment of the sheep and the goats (Matthew 25:31-46), Jesus lists the ways we can take care of those in physical need: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me..." (Matthew 25:35).

These are the Corporal Works of Mercy: to feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty, to clothe the naked, to visit the sick and imprisoned, to shelter the homeless and to bury the dead. Most importantly, "it is by what they have done for the poor that Jesus Christ will recognize his chosen ones" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2443).

At their heart, the Corporal Works of Mercy are about being aware of others' needs and responding to them. By this, we make our love for God and others visible and effective. "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).

Feasts & Celebrations

Feb. 14 – Ash Wednesday. The first day of Lent. Ashes from the burnt palms of the previous Passion Sunday are blessed and placed on the foreheads as a sign of penance.

Feb. 22 – St. Margaret of Cortona (1297). Born in Italy, St. Margaret ran away to live with a young man and had a son. When her lover was unexpectedly killed, St. Margaret returned home with her young son and became a penitent. Eventually, she joined the Franciscans. She founded the Confraternity of Our Lady of Mercy to care for the sick and poor.

February 23 – St. Polycarp (155). Bishop of Smyrna, Asia-Minor, St. Polycarp was a disciple of the Apostle St. John and a friend of St. Ignatius of Antioch. He passed on the Apostles' teachings to the next generation of Christians. He faithfully cared for his flock despite being surrounded by pagans and a government opposed to Christianity. Before he was martyred, he thanked God for making him worthy of a martyr's death.

THE LENTEN JOURNEY

with Bishop Mark Rivotuso

13 FEBRUARY 2018 • 7:00 PM
KIRKWOOD STATION BREWING CO

SEMINARY OPEN HOUSE

Sunday, February 25, 2018

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Come and learn more about life as a seminarian at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary's Open House. Take a seminarian-guided tour throughout the halls, classrooms, living spaces, library, and chapels. Experience seminary life, meet your future priests, and pray in the Chapel of St. Joseph. All are welcome! Visit kenrick.edu/open-house for more information.
