Dear Friends,

Today is the Feast Day of Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne and it's the 200th Anniversary year of her arrival to Saint Louis. As one of our three patron Saints of this Archdiocese, this is a brief summary of her life story.

Rose Philippine Duchesne was born in Grenoble, France on August 29, 1769, one of seven sisters and one brother. Educated by the Visitation sisters, Philippine felt called to religious life at an early age and entered the convent at age 18. The French Revolution interfered with Philippine's plans, as all religious houses were closed or suppressed during that time. For eleven years, she attempted to live the rule of her order outside the convent, while serving her family and those suffering from the Reign of Terror, including those imprisoned at the convent. In December 1804, Philippine met Madeleine Sophie Barat, the foundress of the Society of the Sacred Heart, and she entered the community where these two women became immediate and lifelong friends. (Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat, canonized in 1925)

Philippine longed to serve in the New World, but it would be thirteen years before she received the permission of her friend and superior, Mother Madeleine Sophie. In 1817, Bishop DuBourg of Louisiana journeyed to France to recruit religious and priests to help him in his large territory. After much pleading from Philippine, Mother Madeleine Sophie at last consented. Philippine, with four other Religious of the Sacred Heart, set sail on March 21, 1818, landing near New Orleans on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, May 29, 1818. After a six-week stay with the Ursulines in New Orleans, Philippine led her group up the Mississippi River, arriving in Saint Louis on August 29, 1818. Bishop DuBourg welcomed them and explained that they would be assigned, not to St. Louis, as expected, but to the small village of St. Charles, Missouri. She opened the first Sacred Heart School outside Europe on September 8, 1818. The Academy of the Sacred Heart was also the first free school west of the Mississippi, and the first Catholic school in what would become the St. Louis Archdiocese.

Running the school in St. Charles was a struggle as money was tight and the building was in poor condition. By the very next year the Academy relocated to Florissant, Missouri, where the new location was able to attract more students, as well as vocations, and Mother Duchesne opened the first novitiate. In 1827, she founded the City House School in St. Louis, with programs for boarders, a free day school and an orphanage.

Finally, in 1841, Philippine's long held wish to serve among the Native Americans came to fruition. She went with three other Religious of the Sacred Heart to Sugar Creek, Kansas, to establish a school for girls of the Potawatomi tribe. At 72, she was too frail to be of much help with the physical work, and she could not learn the Potawatomi language. She spent much of her time in prayer, gaining the name "Woman Who Prays Always." After just one year, she was called back to St. Charles (which had reopened in 1828) because of her health. She spent the last decade of her life at her original foundation there. When she died on November 18, 1852, at age 83, she had spent 34 years in America. She was beatified in 1940 and canonized in 1988. Her Feast Day is today, November 18!

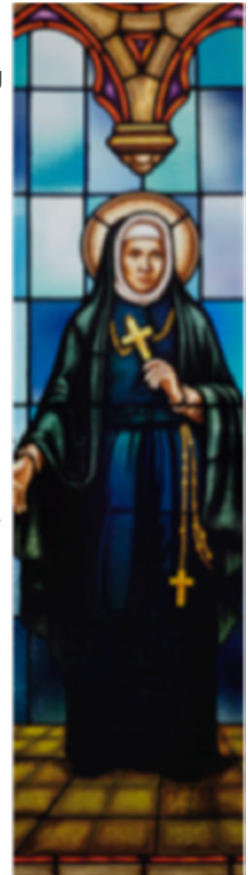

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne's shrine, located at the Academy of the Sacred Heart in St. Charles, has been preserved and is open to visitors and for tours all year long. Mindful that she was a Saint who actually lived and served right here in our Archdiocese, it would definitely make for a good field trip for you and/or your family.

Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne, pray for us!

And...may you and your family have a blessed Thanksgiving this week.

If you are able to join us for our Thanksgiving Parish Mass on Thursday at 9 AM, it would be really nice to fill the pews with as many of us as possible being grateful together before God for our many, many blessings!

Father Mike

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION is every Tuesday following 8 a.m. Mass until 9 p.m. This quiet meditative, prayerful time is open to all for visits. For more information or if you would like to sign-up for an hour of adoration weekly, bi-monthly or monthly, please contact Debbie Kujawa, 397-4970, or debbiekujawa2@gmail.com

THE DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET is sung every Tuesday during Eucharistic Adoration at 2:50 pm & 7 pm. Pamphlets containing the Chaplet are available on or in the back tables in church for you to keep. If you would like to help for an hour once a month at 7 pm, please contact Ann Kelly, 314-397-8834.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

We pray for the repose of Martha Smith. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. May the family know the compassion and comfort of the Risen Lord. Amen.

Rest In Peace

DECEMBER GIVE-A-MEAL-A-MONTH MENU: Instant white or canned sweet potatoes, green beans, mushroom soup, French fried onions, Martha White biscuit mix, entrée of your choice. Optional Items: any toiletries. If you wish to donate a ham, please contact Pat Berry , 962-3091 by Dec. 10. If you wish to make a monetary donation it can be put in an envelope marked "SVDP" and placed in the collection basket.

Heading into the holiday season, please make a note that Christmas cards from several pro-life organizations will be for sale after Masses in the vestibule Thanksgiving weekend and the first weekend in December. Cards from Missouri Right to Life are $12 for 18 cards and from Birthright $10 for 15 cards. There will also be cards from Coalition for Life, 12 per pack for a $10 donation.

In addition, as we have done in the past, we will be offering the opportunity to contribute to Christmas decorations for the church, including poinsettias, with memorial donations. The deadline will be Sunday, December 9. There is a form in the bulletin this weekend.

If you are planning a trip to Washington, D.C., for the March for Life in January, please feel free to contact Mollie Lucchesi (314-918-1658) to apply for financial assistance from the parish pro-life organization.

The members of Spirit and Truth wish you a blessed Thanksgiving. We will not be meeting this week. Join us next Thursday at Immaculate Heart of Mary, or see our upcoming schedule at spiritandtruthstl.org.

ADVENT PRAYER: LESSONS AND CAROLS
Celebrate the Advent Season with the Sisters of St. Joseph. Welcome Advent as we sing together songs of the season, listen to the messages of waiting and take time for quiet and reflection. In prayer, we open ourselves to the gift of patience and joy. Sunday, December 2 at 2 p.m. at the historic motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Joseph, 6400 Minnesota Avenue, 63111. RSVP by Nov. 19 to 314-481-8800 or motherhousesv@csjsl.org Free will offering to benefit the CSJ Gulu Project, providing water filtration kits and training to women in Uganda.

THANK YOU so much for all the work you do support St. Patrick Center clients. While some people place value on power and things, our greatest asset is you. We can't say "thank you" enough to you for all you do. In the last year 3,464 volunteers donated 40,011 hours to St. Patrick Center, saving the agency more than $987,000! Without you, we would not have been able to accomplish as much as we have. This year, in lieu of a Volunteer Appreciation Party, a donation will be made to fund building a chapel at St. Patrick Center for our clients to use to work on their spiritual health.

RCIA will not meet November 18 & 25. RCIA will resume Sunday, December 2. Interested in learning more about RCIA, contact Fr. Mike at 314-962-5955 or RCIA director Patrick Stack at 314-565-9143. Happy Thanksgiving!

The Giving Tree is our way of sharing the Christmas message with those less fortunate members of Christ's family. Anyone wishing to participate can select an ornament from the tree, purchase that gift and place it in the boxes in the Bride's Room un-wrapped with the color coded ornament attached. It is very important to attach the ornament, since we sort the gifts by colors for the five agencies. The agencies prefer that gifts are not wrapped since some let parents pick out gifts and other gifts are for the agencies to use over the course of the year. However, packages of gift wrapping and ribbons are most welcome by the St. Vincent de Paul and Feed My People groups.

The groups we are working with again this year are: St. Vincent de Paul chapter (red ornaments), South Side Early Childhood Center (SS-ECC) (yellow ornaments), Birthright (blue ornaments), Our Lady's Inn (pink ornaments) and Feed My People Seniors (orange ornaments). Gifts may be for individuals, families, groups of children or classrooms and there is a wide cost-range of gift ideas. Most items can be purchased at discount, craft or book stores or gift certificates (think APP). Gifts need to be returned to Church by Sunday, December 9 to allow agencies time to sort and distribute gifts by Christmas. Questions: Carolyn Cotta, 843-0919

Floral Decorations for Our Altar for Christmas

Our parish Pro-Life Committee is helping with Christmas poinsettias and other floral decorations this year for our altar. If you would like to remember a loved one or honor a special someone, just fill out the bottom portion of this form. Individual donations are $10.00. Please return the form below with your cash or check in an envelope marked "Christmas Altar" and drop it in the collection basket by Sunday, December 9th, or drop it off at the Parish Office.

Please make all checks payable to the Annunciation Pro-Life Committee.
