MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

We pray for the repose of Marie Sweeney, mother of Maureen Schneider. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. May the family know the compassion and comfort of the Risen Lord. Amen

Dear Friends,

With today being Palm Sunday we have entered into Holy Week. The unique traditions and liturgical celebrations of this week are to assist us in remembering the original Holy Week of Jesus' suffering, death, and Resurrection. As today we remember Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem with palms in hand, and we recall His Passion and Cross with the Gospel reading, it is the end of the week that is known to us Christians to be the holiest days of the year -- the Sacred Triduum.

The Sacred Triduum will begin Thursday evening and end on Easter Sunday. Triduum means Three Days. The actual number of days that have a share in the Triduum, however, is four: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. These days known as the Triduum, Three Days, are determined by measuring a day from sundown, as was the Jewish practice of Jesus' day. So, sundown of Holy Thursday to sundown of Easter Sunday is 3 days.

While there is no official obligation, except for on Easter Sunday, to attend any of the church services during Holy Week, it is important for all of us to consider how to appropriately keep and honor the days of this Week as truly holy. I invite you to consider joining in the Triduum services this year that will be celebrated at both parishes. You can find the list of the times of our Holy Week services in this bulletin.

Have a blessed and Holy Week!

Father Mike

STEWARDSHIP

The Pontifical Holy Land Special Collection

This special collection takes place on Good Friday, March 29. It supports the people of the Holy Land and the pilgrims that visit. At the request of the Holy Father, the Franciscans of the Holy Land promote the Pontifical Good Friday Collection in the United States and other parts of the world. Funds are distributed at the direction of the Vatican's Congregation for the Oriental Churches. A portion of the funds are directly allocated to the educational and ecclesial projects in the Middle East. The rest of the funds collected in the United States and a number of other countries support the ministries and programs entrusted by the Holy See to the Holy Land Franciscans. The Franciscans have served in the Holy Land for 800 years.

Message from Archbishop Rozanski on the Easter Special Collection for Retired Priests

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, The annual Archbishop's Collection for Retired Priests will be taken up in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis on Easter Sunday, March 31, 2024. This is a beautiful opportunity to honor and thank the priests who have dedicated their lives to serving others. We can count on our parish priests to instruct us in the faith, counsel us in difficult times, help us celebrate joyful moments, and comfort us in our grief. Indeed, many retired priests continue serving in parishes, schools, nursing homes, hospitals, and other Catholic ministries. Your gift helps meet their temporal needs, including physician services, hospitalization, nursing home care, vision care, and disability. I thank you for your generosity in caring for our retired priests who dedicate their lives to serving the Lord and His people! Be assured that our retired priests are praying for you and your families. I hope you will pray for them as well.

EVENTS

We had a great time at the Fish Fry on March 8! Good to see all those came out to enjoy the delicious fish. Special thanks to Megan Herbig for stepping up to chair this event. And thanks to all our hardworking volunteers who helped to make it a resounding success!

Dear Parishioners,

Today we begin Holy Week, the most important week in the Church's Year of Grace. In the words of one of Lenten Prefaces, we are participating in the mysteries by which we were re-born, that is, the sacraments which bring into our lives the Death and Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The last three days of this week are called the Paschal Triduum. Pascha is the Aramaic word for Passover. Triduum is Latin for "three days." Jesus was crucified at the time of the Jewish Passover; we also understand that Jesus himself "passed over" from this world to his heavenly Father. His death and resurrection gives us eternal life; and we "pass over" to new life when we are baptized. (Romans 6:3-11, the Easter Vigil Epistle reading).

We count the days of the Triduum according to Jewish usage, in which the day begins at sunset on the previous day. The Triduum begins with the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, and concludes with Evening Prayer on Easter Sunday.

At the Jewish Passover meal, the youngest person asks: why is this night different from all other nights? The Triduum celebrations are distinctive. On Holy Thursday, we perform the washing of feet, as Jesus commanded, to signify our love for one another. On Good Friday, we fast, even from the celebration of Mass. This is the most ancient Christian fast, the Church recommends that we continue the fast into Holy Saturday. At our Easter Vigil, the deacon proclaims, This is the night when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld. We bless fire and light a new Paschal Candle; we bless water, and baptize and confirm our new members. Between the ceremony of the new light, and the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation, we read and pray over the Scriptures: "the reading of the Word of God is a fundamental part of the Easter Vigil." In the fourth century, in Jerusalem, the Vigil included 12 readings and 12 Psalms, followed by the last three chapters of the Gospel (i.e. from the Last Supper to the Resurrection.) These days are different from all other days!

The Triduum preserves some of the oldest rites of the Roman Church. For example, the Good Friday liturgy resembles the Roman Mass in the fourth century: the liturgy began with the Collect (what we used to call the Opening Prayer), continued to the Scripture readings, and included solemn prayers of intercession. In later times, these "Prayers of the Faithful" were only said on Good Friday, until Vatican II restored them to every Mass.

The times of celebration were also restored in 1951; prior to this everything took place in the morning. As we know, the Mass of the Lord's Supper is in the evening; the Liturgy of the Passion "takes place in the afternoon, about three o'clock, unless pastoral reasons suggest a later hour;" and the Easter Vigil cannot begin before sunset. So our parishes will celebrate the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday at 7 PM, and the Easter Vigil begins at 8 PM on Saturday. We will have the Good Friday liturgy at Our Lady of Providence at 3 PM and at Annunciation at 7 PM, so that everyone can attend at their preferred time. Annunciation will hold Good Friday Stations of the Cross at 3pm.

The setting for the liturgy may also reflect ancient customs. The tabernacle is empty; the Missal says that "it is desirable that crosses be removed from the church, or covered." The altar table is stripped after the Mass on Holy Thursday and again on Good Friday. According to historians of the liturgy, the cross was first placed on the altar in the ninth century. The tabernacle as we know it, and its placement on or near the main altar, was mandated by the Council of Trent in the sixteenth century. For us, the bare sanctuary symbolizes the mourning that Jesus foretold "when the Bridegroom is taken away" (Mark 2:20). It also focuses our attention on the Eucharist, and the Holy Cross, when these are solemnly presented to us during the Triduum liturgies.

Years ago a friend remarked: everything we believe is presented in the Triduum. There is no better way to renew our understanding of the kerygma, the essential proclamation of the Christian faith, and to re-awaken our call to be missionary disciples, than our full, active participation in the sacred liturgy of Holy Week.
