School Supply Collection for the Needy- July 26 & 27th to Aug. 2 & 3rd, 2025

Our Lady of Providence and Annunciation are collecting

NEW school supplies for St. Frances Cabrini Academy, a Catholic Elementary school in South St. Louis City, which serves 185 students from 15 different countries. Their principal and OLP parishioner, Caroline Koetting, says "Our families prioritize faith and education. They understand the opportunities that a quality education provides. We currently have graduates at every Catholic high school in the St. Louis area!" Most needed items: Expo markers, Crayola markers, 24 ct. Crayola crayon, highlighters, #2 pencils, red, blue or black pens, glue sticks, post-it notes & zip lock bags (any size). Collection boxes can be found in Our Lady of Providence church vestibule and Annunciation bride's room.

Cash donations are also welcome. Checks can be made out to "St. Frances Cabrini Academy."

Last August, our parishes supported Bridge Bread Bakery with one of their best church sales ever! This year, Bridge Bread has been very busy baking for tornado victims while planning to expand their crucial homeless empowerment ministry to a second location. We have another golden opportunity to lift them up while enjoying delicious treats with a Bridge Bread Days sale. We begin pre-orders from August 9th through the 13th with delivery to churches for pickup on August 16th and 17th. Limited items will be available for cash sales on the 16th and 17th. Please mark calendars and watch for specific instructions. God bless and reward you!
